Level 2

Vedika and Karan loved to huddle and read together on their grandfather's rocking chair. "Look at the lion," pointed Vedika.

"It's a very small picture. 2

Just then, Karan and Vedika put down the looking glass and found themselves standing in front of a huge, big lion.

"My cousin, the cat and I met at the lake yesterday and when we drank water from the lake, I got her miaow and she got my roar," said the lion.

"This is

Everyone looked at each other and sniffed. The lion tried to miaow but out came a Roaaarrrrr! The cat tried to roar but out came a Miiaaow! Vedika clapped her hands and giggled.

“Mr. Lion, you have your roar back.” “I do, I do, and thank you,” he replied.

The cat didn't look very happy. "Miss Cat, you sound very sweet with your miaow," said Karan.

"Do I? Well, then thank you," said Miss Cat.

Vedika and Karan held their looking glass to get a closer look at the cat and as they moved it forward and back, the cat became smaller and smaller.
