The peacock without feathers

Author: Harini Srinivasa

Illustrators: Sonal Goyal, Sumit Sakhuja

Once there lived a peacock in a village. The peacock was very beautiful.

Though the peacock was beautiful, the villagers did not like the peacock as the peacock did not have any peacock feathers. So the peacock was sad.

A little girl in the village liked the peacock and wanted to help the peacock. So she went and searched for peacock feathers everywhere.

She searched everywhere for peacock feathers...even in the water! The peacock saw this and was surprised by the little girl's kindness.

The girl came out of the water and was shocked to find the peacock staring at her. "Hey little girl" said the peacock. "You are very kind. I am not sad anymore because I have found a good friend like you".

So the peacock and the little girl became best friends. The peacock was so happy that magically the feathers grew!
