Level 3

Kate has a thing in her head.
How will they remove it?

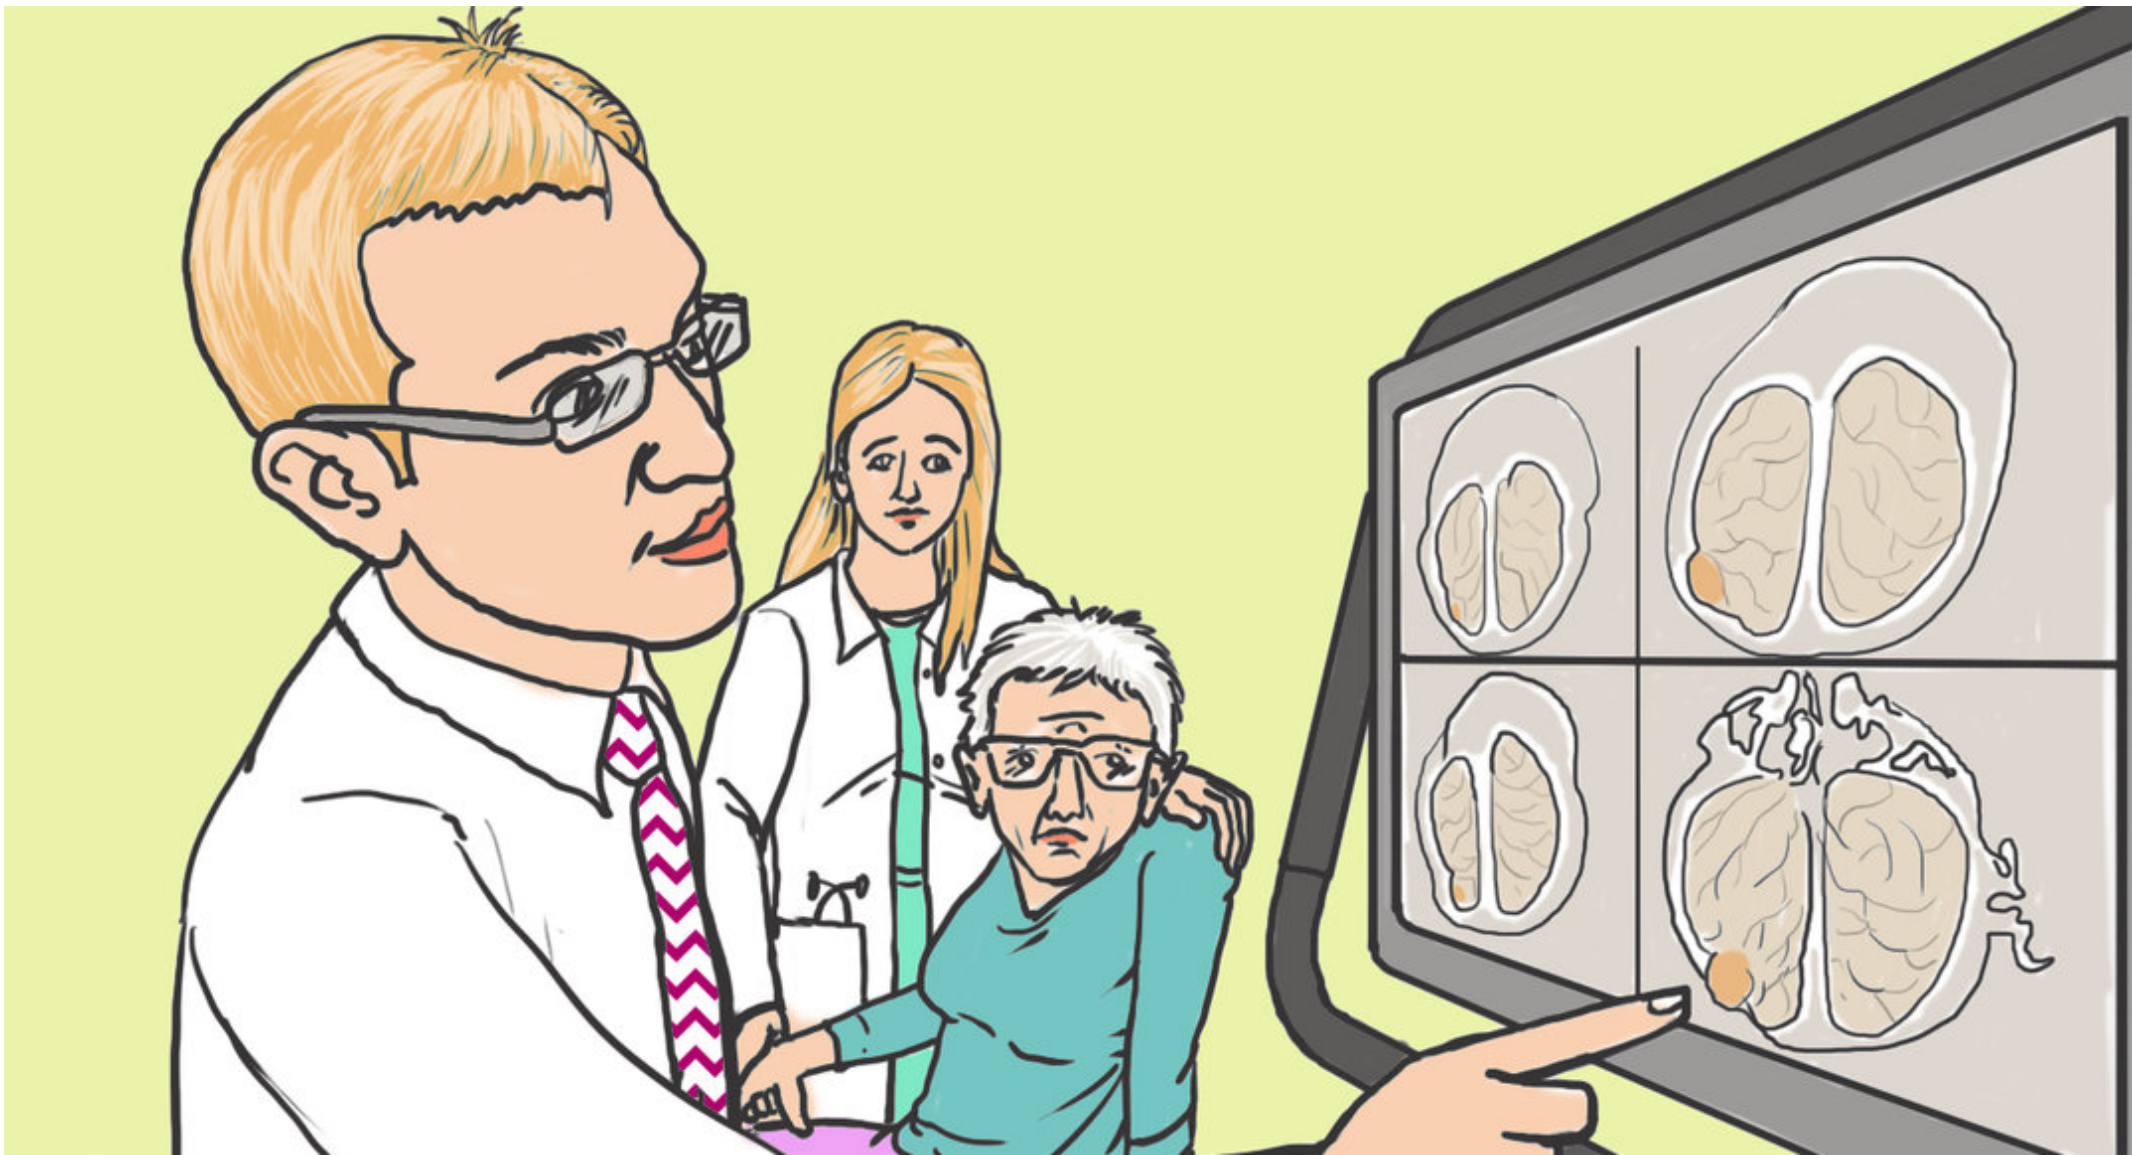

It makes her tired.
It pains her.
It makes her heavy.

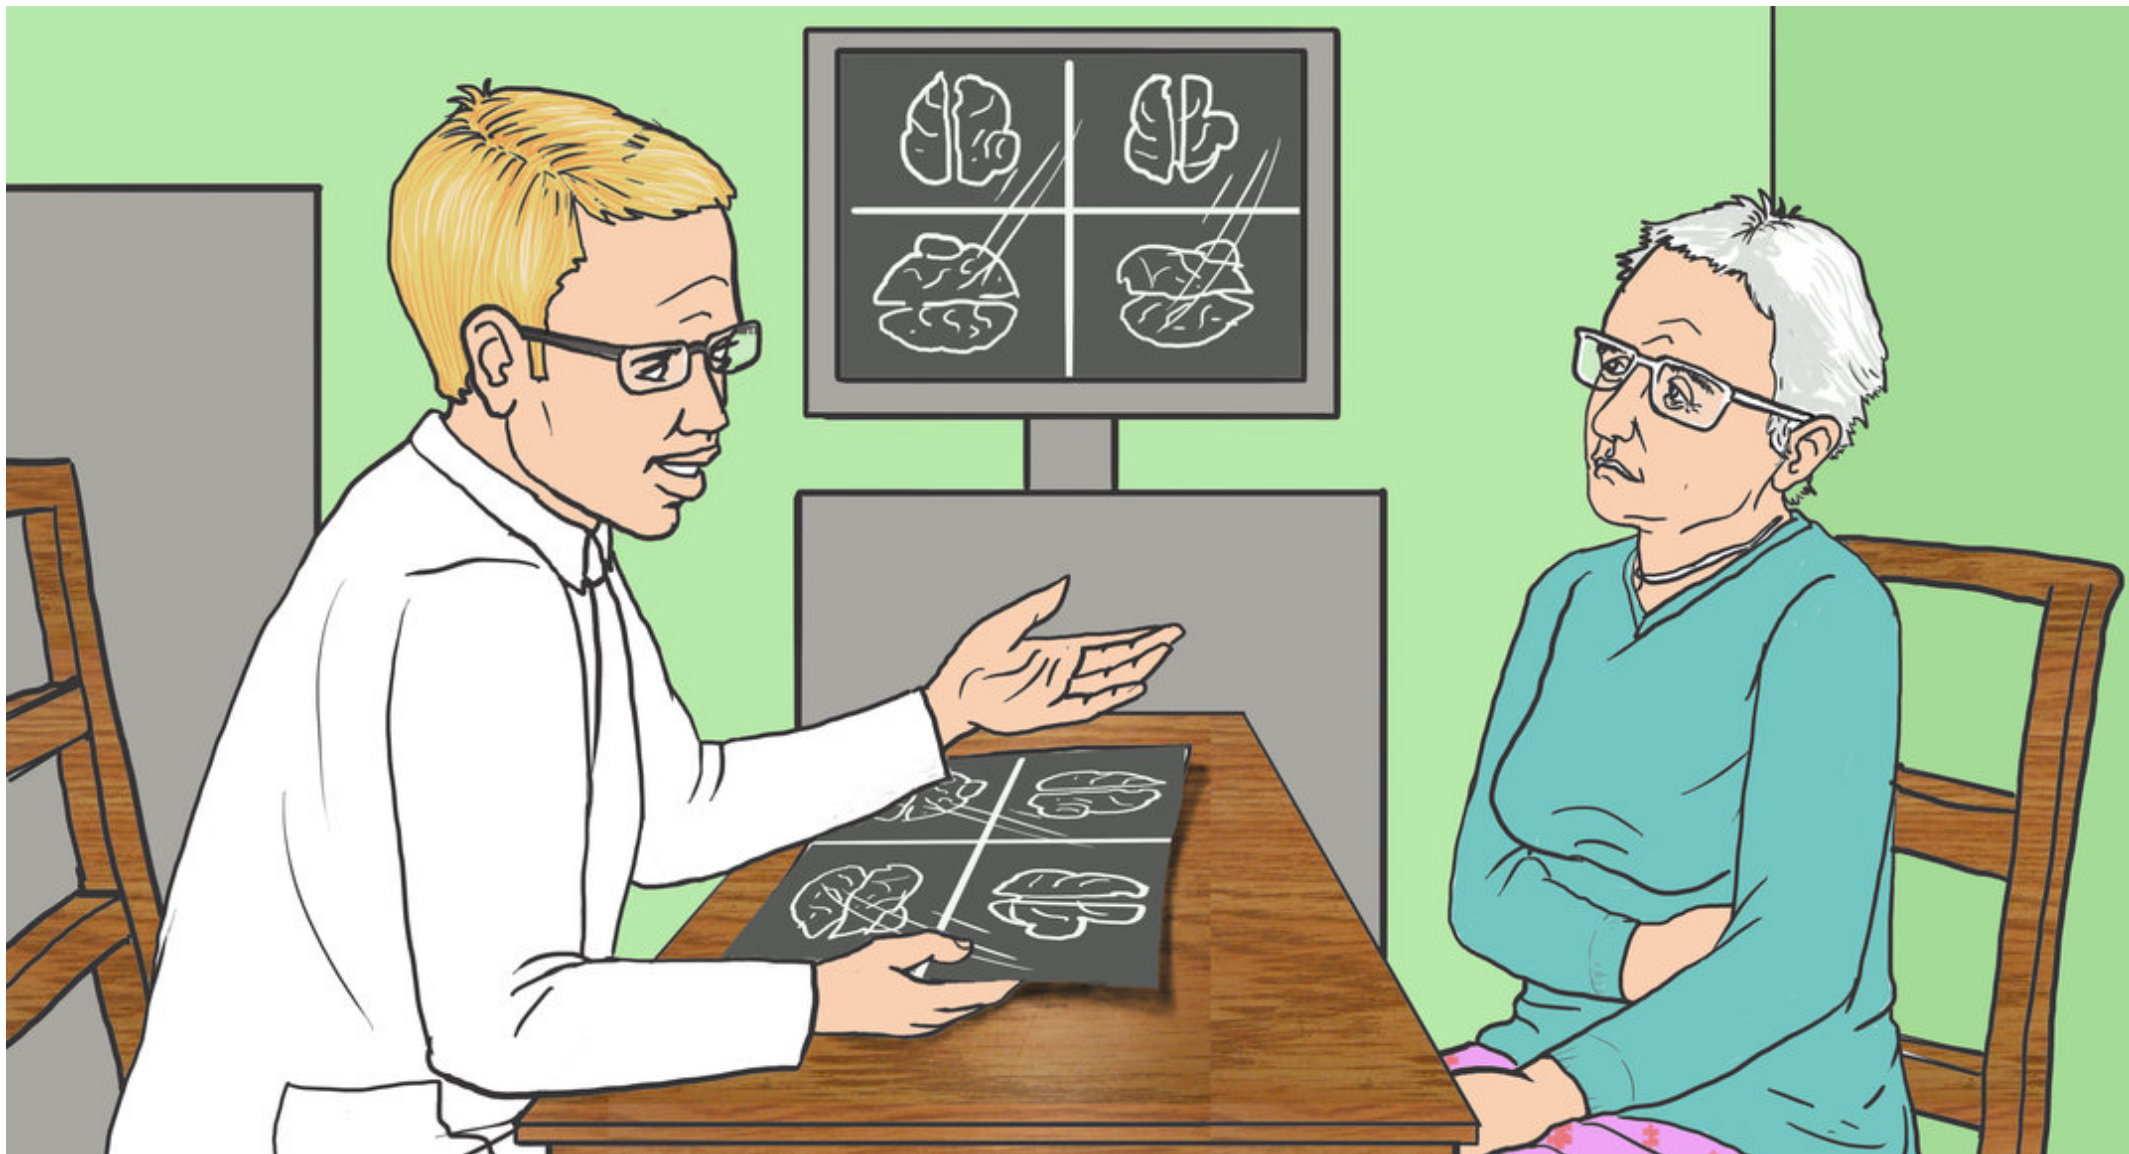

She can't eat.
She can't drink.
She is not as jolly as before,

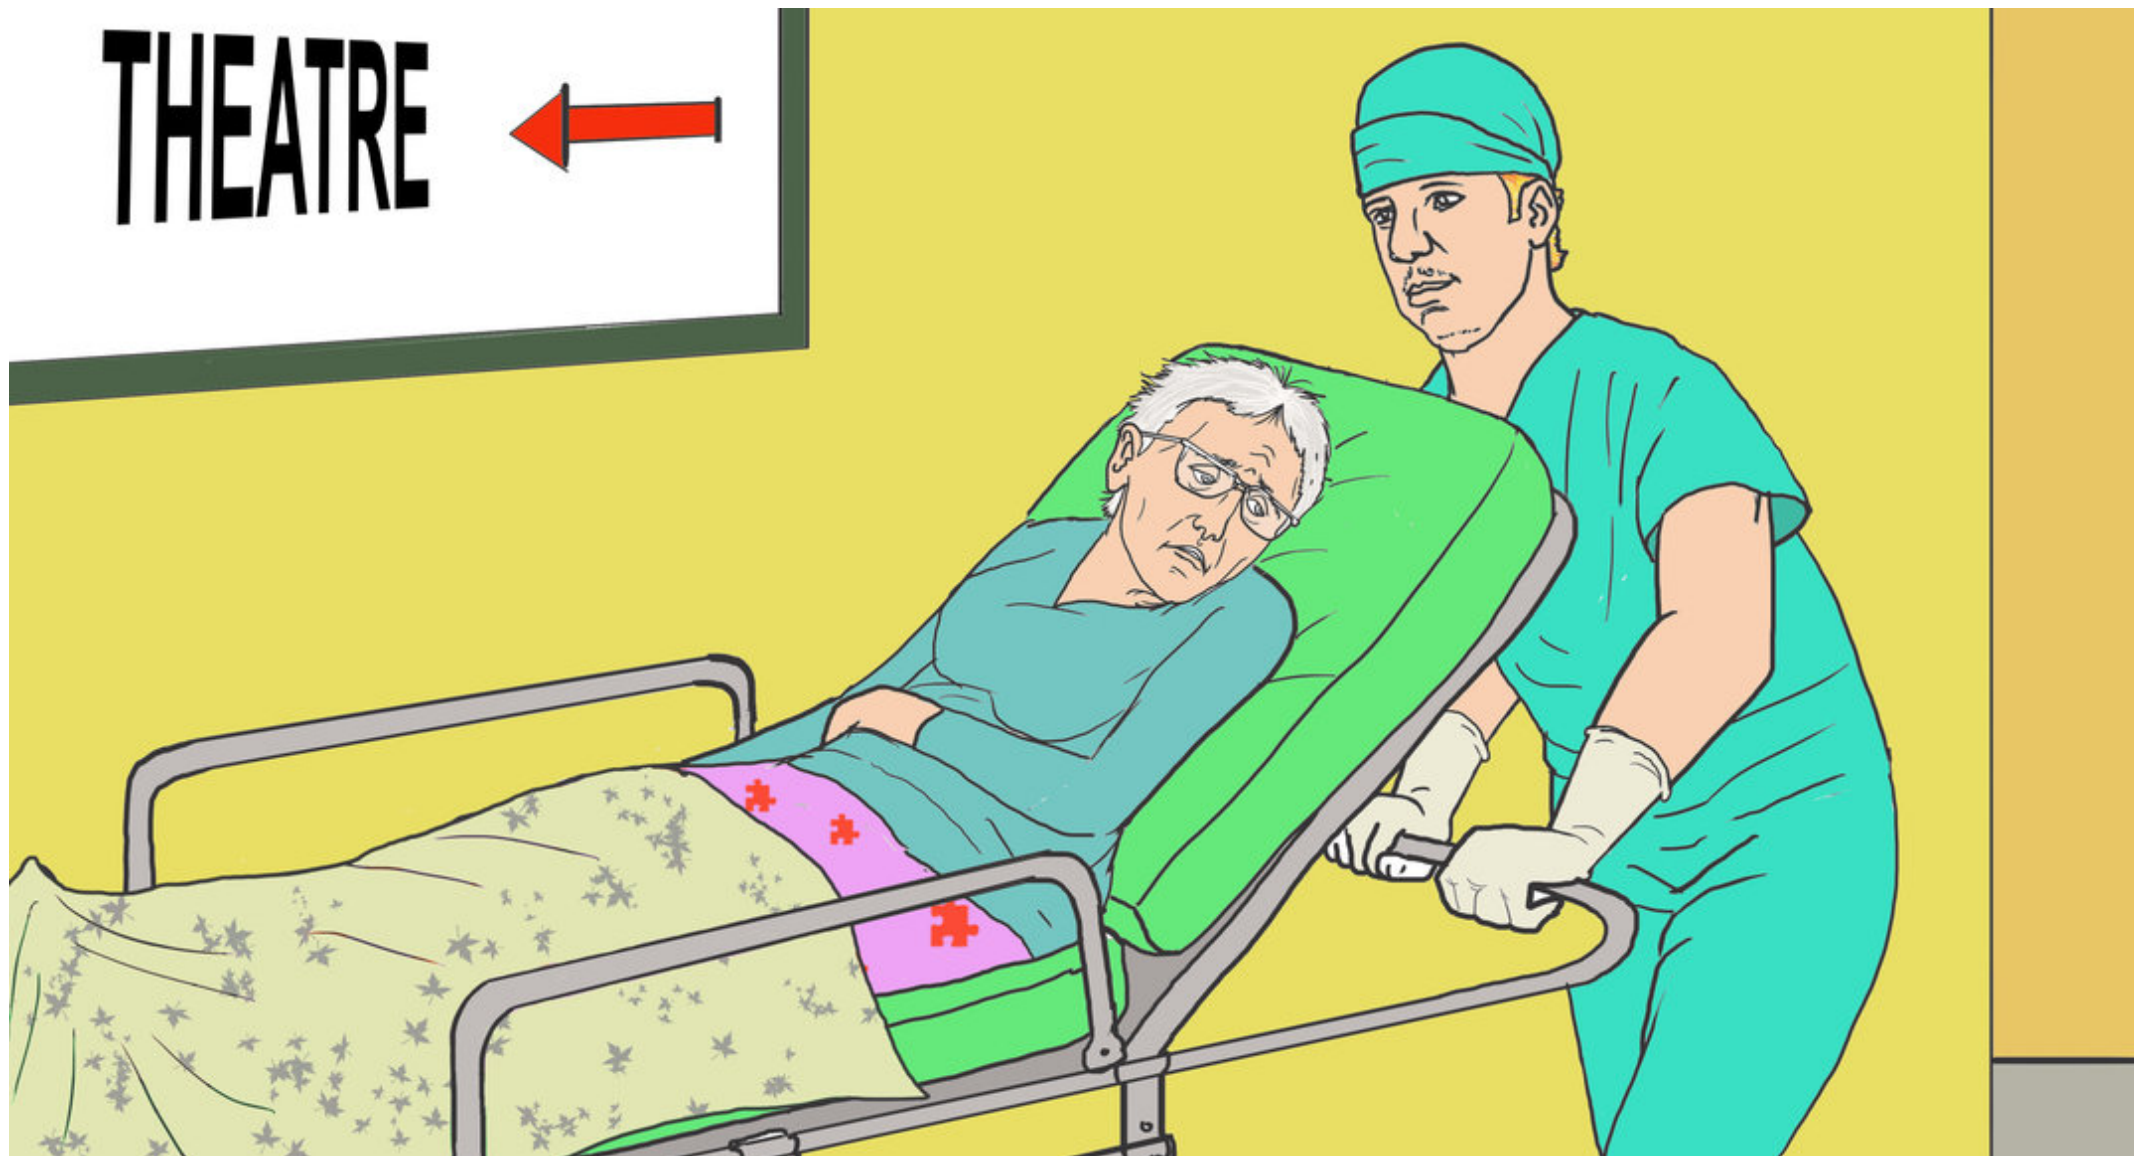

A doctor is scanning her head.
Oh dear. It's a pity.
Poor woman! Her head throbs with pain.

The doctor has seen a swelling in the head.
The doctor says, "this is a blood tumor."
"We have to remove it from your brain right now."
"We have to remove it now!" That is what the doctor says

They bring a stretcher.

They arrange the surgical blades.

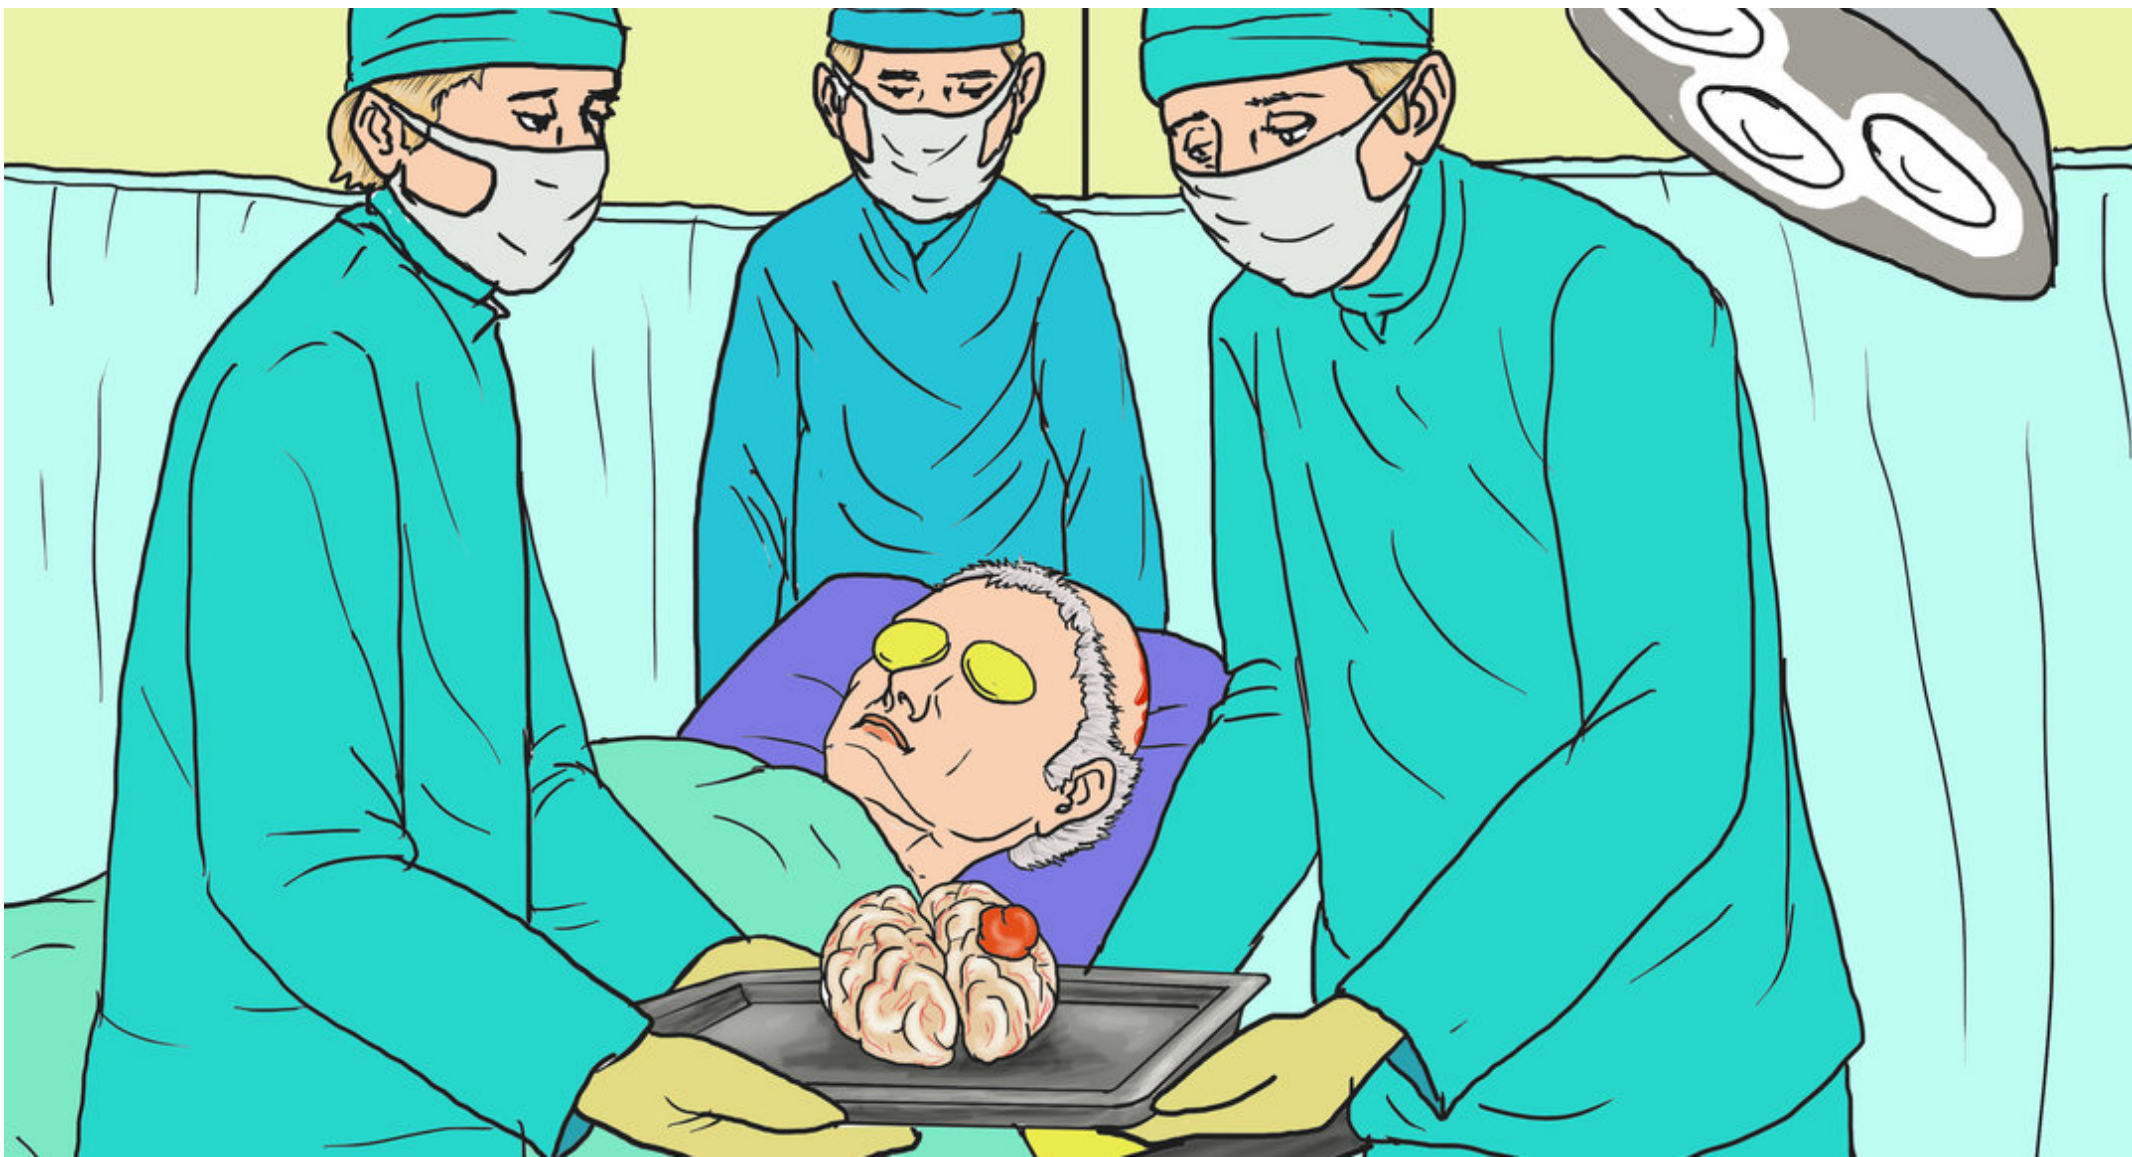

They inject her with syringes.

They cut open Kate's head.

They remove the brain.

They cut out the clot of blood.
Kate is like a child.

The return the brain into the head.
They stitch the head together

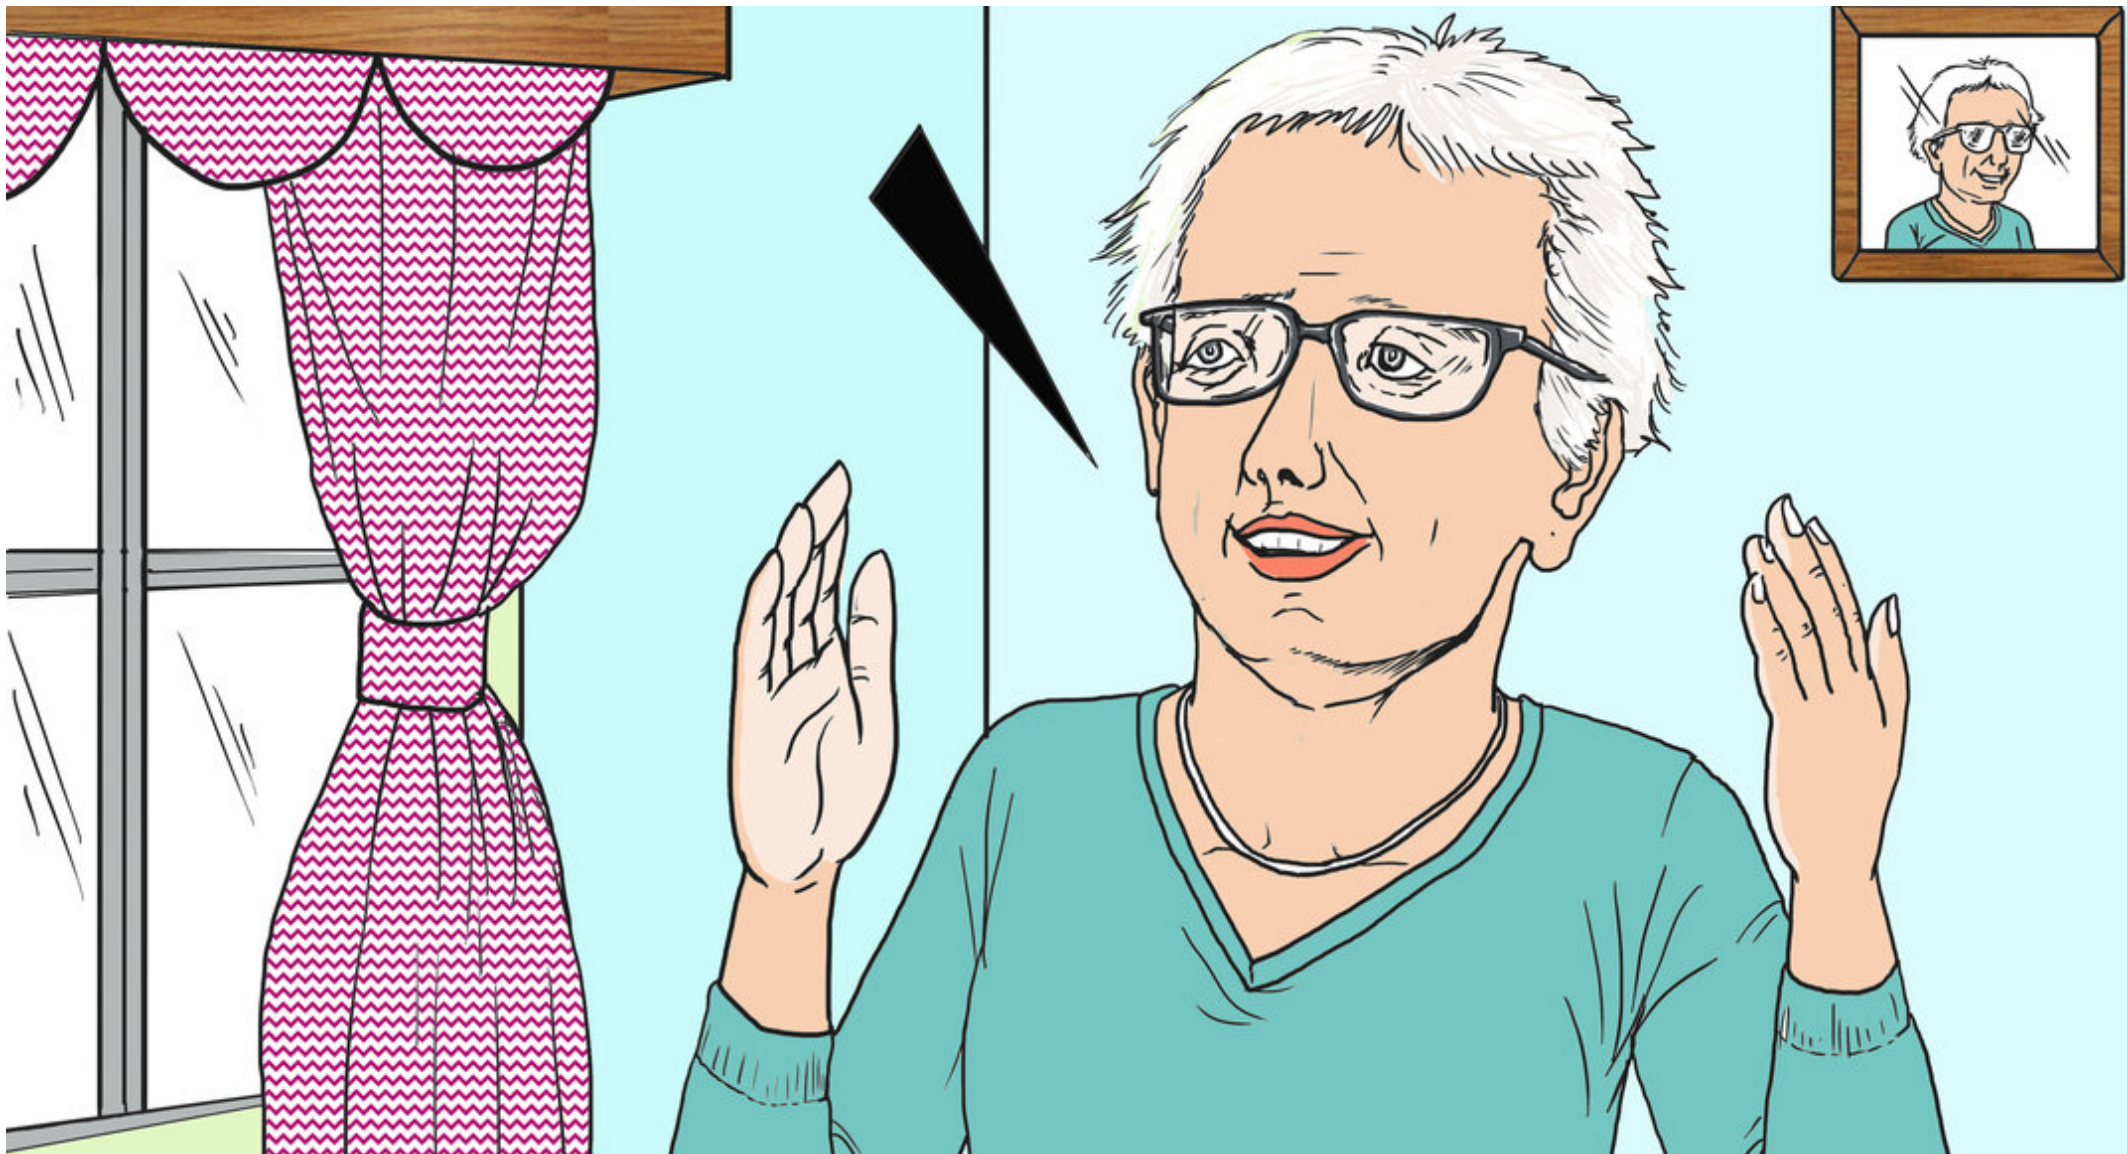

Does Kate feel everything they do?
No! Kate is in heaven.
She does not feel. Or eat. She does not think.
For 24 hours

Then she comes back to life!

Now she is well.
Now she speaks straight.
Like a baby newly born.

We are all happy.
For our friend
Kate who tasted heaven.
