What's (used mostly for speaking) = What is (more formal and put into text)

Vocabulary:

- neighbor (noun): a person who lives close to someone else. _____
- apartment (noun): a room or set of rooms in a building used as living space. _____
- floor (noun): a level of a building. _____

Sounds:

'Ch' in "Chicago" makes a 'sh' sound.

Examples: chef, machine, mustache, parachute, Chicago

Which, Who, and What

Which + noun (things or people):

- Which class did you take - English or Russian?

We use which without a noun for things, not people:

- Which is bigger - Canada or Australia?

We use who for people (without a noun):

- Who is taller - Bill or Gerry?

What or which?

We use which when we are thinking about a small number of possibilities (perhaps 2, 3 or 4):

- We can go this way or that way. Which way shall we go?

What is more general:

- What is the capital of the United Kingdom?
