

The love of art

Author: Rachita Uday Kumar

Illustrator: Tanvi Choudhury

Level 2

Ridhima and Rohan loved painting.They painted all day.They won many art prizes in school.

One day,mummy told them that they were moving to a new house.The children were very happy.Mummy told them that they also had to paint the house.

They liked the house very much. The builders told them to paint the fence. They happily agreed.

After they finished,they asked the builder if they could paint the gate.The builder happily agreed.

After they finished, they wanted to paint the house. So they went inside.

They had to first clean they house.They cleaned it and then they started painting.

They designed the walls with fingerprints and checkers.

After they had finished, everyone around the neighbourhood came and praised them.

After the people had gone,mummy told them to make paintings.So they made them. They even sold their paintings.Mummy was very pleased with their talent.

Ridhima and Rohan were world famous for their paintings. They even started their own little shop. If we want to make something like them, we should love art.
